FACTSHEET

The Course

Designed by one of the most prolific golf course designers of the early 20th century, Thomas Bendelow, the Country Club of Decatur has been regarded as one of the finest championship golf courses in the region for more than a century. The golf course features tree lined Zoysia fairways and Bentgrass putting greens and measures over 6,600 yards from the championship tees. The golf course is characterized by gorgeous creeks, ponds and rolling terrain, and the design puts a premium on club selection and accuracy, while winds off Lake Decatur often come into play.

Environment

Country Club of Decatur has played host to numerous Professional and Amateur Tournaments to include; 2013 Central Illinois PGA Championship, and 2018 Central Illinois PGA Birdies for Charity, 2010 Illinois PGA Section Stroke Play, 2008 Central Illinois PGA Stroke Play, 2013 Central Illinois PGA Chapter Championship, 2018 Central Illinois PGA Birdies for Charity, 2015 IWGA Sr State Amateur, 2017 Illinois Senior State Amateur Qualifying, and the Decatur City Amateur for 5 years.

Location

CCD was recognized along with the city of Decatur by the America in Bloom initiative which promotes community enhancement programs in environmental awareness, urban forestry and landscape beautification just to name a few. CCD has garnered national accolades and was recognized about the on-going commitment to resource conservation, the management of water quality, and wildlife. CCD is located directly east of down town and on the shoreline of Lake Decatur, and is just minutes from Interstate 72
